Dear clergy of the Episcopal Diocese of Western North Carolina,

On behalf of the Right Rev. Jose McLoughlin and the diocesan staff, I greet you. My name is the Rev. Oscar A. Rozo, Diocesan missioner for Latino/Hispanic Ministries in the Diocese of Western North Carolina. I would like to take a few minutes of your time to tell you about myself and Latino/Hispanic ministry.

When I think about Latino/Hispanic ministry, the first image that comes to mind is an orchestra. Consider the instruments in the orchestra as the voices of the human family. Each voice is uniquely and beautifully made by God. When the instruments are tuned to one another beautiful music happens. For me Latino/Hispanic ministry is about tuning our voices to one another and to God. It is about playing in harmony. My hope for this ministry is to partner with you, tuning ourselves to each other and to God and to see what master pieces we might create together.

Over the next few months I will be inviting you to meet with me and identify ways to do ministry together. I am here to listen to you, support you, and find unique ways to harmonize our ministries.

I would like to invite you to connect with our Latino/Hispanic Facebook page (https://www.facebook.com/latinoministryWNC) where we will provide resources for you to share in your own social media platforms.

Please know I am available to you and excited to do ministry together.

Yours in Christ,

Oscar A. Rozo +
